About the Position

Job Summary: The part-time, 10 – 12 hours/week including practice time, salaried church organist position is responsible for serving the church by providing a range of musical accompaniment skills (organ, piano, and keyboard) for worship services and other church programs.

Qualifications: An enthusiastic and proficient musician who is able to work well on a team with others; who wishes to join a dynamic music ministry; and who has a heart for sharing the gospel by invigorating the worship experience of the congregation through music. This person will work in conjunction with the Director of Music and voluntary leaders to coordinate a comprehensive church music program.

General Responsibilities: Accompany the chancel choir for weekly worship at 11:00 am Sunday mornings and for Thursday evening rehearsals, 7:30 – 9:15 pm. Prepare service music and select and present preludes, interludes, offertories, and postludes for weekly worship. Accompany ensembles and soloists; play for additional special services throughout the year as scheduling requires.

Position Information: Salary: $10,000 – 14,000 depending on qualifications. Availability: The position is currently being filled by interim musicians. Starting date for the position is negotiable but it is preferable that it be filled within the next month to six weeks. The position reports to the Director of Music in consultation with the session's Personnel Committee.

About Our Instruments: Organ is a 3 manual Rodgers, model 960D; Steinway grand piano; five octaves of Schulmerich handbells; and ORFF instrumentarium.

About Our Church: Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church (PCUSA) is located in Lilburn, GA., Gwinnett County. We are a musically appreciative congregation. Church size: 369; worship style: blended. For additional information about the church, see our website: <http://goodshepherdpc.atlpcusa.org/>

Applications and names of three references, including contact information and relationship to the candidate, will be accepted through Friday August 26, 2011 or until the position is filled.
